Red Siege Armies Storm Berlin: Russ-American Link-up is Near

War's Decisive Hour

Allies Strike for Last Nazi Redoubt In Bavarian Alps

From CP, AP and BUP Dispatches

ADVANCED BATTLE HEADQUARTERS, AEF, Germany, April 21.—(CP)—A series of small battles over Berlin today as the Nazi capital rocked under a gigantic Soviet assault of big guns and tanks, and swarms of British, American, Russian and French bombers rained death and destruction from the skies on the doomed city.

Peace fots are reported to have broken out as the Russian aviators rolled close to the lines between the Red Army advancing from the east and the U.S. forces still pushing forward from the west, appeared imminent.

Already there are signs that the defense of Berlin will not be as bitter as expected. It is apparent that the German High Command has now made every effort to stage a large scale breakthrough attempt to stem the tide of the Allied advance. Many of the troops form the last line of defense in the capital are already on the move south, harassed from the air and on the ground by the Allies.

Over-all Allied strategy has appeared given the Red Army the honor of being first into Berlin, but the Russians are concentrating on preventing as many as possible of the Germans from getting away. They are also at the same time closing in and annihilating those other pockets of resistance which have formed along the western front.

Already 91,000 German prisoners have been taken from these pockets, and the numbers are growing daily.

SPEED MOVEMENT

Movement on all Allied fronts is now well under way, and up to date every command is moving forward at maximum speed.

Striking in the war's decisive moment, the Red Army has taken from the Hitlerites their armored forces for a prolonged stand in Hitler's mountain stronghold.

Price, city chairman, National War Finance Committee. The ceremony will be held at the Jasper avenue and 101 street intersection in front of the Victory Tower. Sqn.-Ldr. Ashford has had a wide and varied career as a minister, as an officer with the British Army Service Corps in India, and as an RCAF chaplain in England, North Africa and Europe. He is on special duties at present, having been loaned to the National War Finance Commmittee for the Victory Loan campaign.

Proclaiming End

Of Europe War

Now Imminent

In the forthcoming loan, the minimum objective will be from $1,350,000,000, an increase of $75,000,000 over the quota sought from individuals in the Seventh loan. Increased emphasis is being placed upon the sum to be paid to individuals, National War Finance Committee officials said.

In the Seventh loan, total sales amounted to $1,317,000,000, of which $766,000,000 in bonds were purchased.

PREPARATIONS MADE

During the last few months intensive organizational work has been carried out in each of the three regions of Canada to insure that the units are making every effort to increase the number of applicants to the loan.

"For my part I have deprecated any attempt on the part of individuals to embark upon a period when official restrictions and requirements should be embarked upon, as it is in the main the great commanders of the United States and the great men our Russian Allies have been doing their best to implement when their task is done."

"I do not think it need be long before we have a peace."

He warned, however, that "we shall fail in our duty if we allow ourselves anything but a brief respite from our strenuous efforts when they showed 'Objective Burma' here."

Errol Flynn shot the Japs with a water pistol, and made a speech in the art gallery. There's a picture of Lady Godiva and she's riding in a taxicab with the curtains drawn. She's been to Faesdena and turned it into a hospital and we visited her the other day. We done quite a bit of work from the rear, we feel much safer when there's a doctor close by. It's a very good spot for a hospital because Faesdena is a very safe place to be.

Allies Strike For Nazidom's Last Redoubt

The American Third and Seventh, and the French First armies, had advanced to positions situated along a 200-mile twisting battle line extending northeastward from the Swiss to the Czechoslovak borders.

Lt. Gen. Henri F. Dentz, the German commander in his domain, spread his arms up to and across the Czechoslovak border on a front longing to be within 38 miles of Prague and 85 miles from the last escape gap open to the North between northern and southern Germany.

At the same time the U.S. 7th Army struck south and southwest from captured Nuremberg, 100 miles west of Munich, northern anchor of the Nazi Bavarian line, and the French First drove in from the west to a point barely 30 miles from Lake Constance, western terminus of the Bavarian road.

Hundreds of German planes set the Swiss-German air space afire in the path of the charging Allied armies, and Zurich dispatched its last flight to safety to Engen, 12 miles west of Lake Constance and only six miles north of the Swiss border.

IN FULL SWING

The Zurich reports said that the great Nazi withdrawal into the Bavarian Alps was in full swing, that the mountain redoubt and the remnants of 21 other divisions falling back in the direction through Bavaria.

Late from line dispatches from the U.S. 7th Army front said Hitler's youth troops were fighting savagely to delay the march on Munich.

PULLED BACK

Reported up by hand-picked Elite Guards units the boy soldiers recaptured Nuremberg, 20 miles southeast of Munich, early today. American armored forces pulled back from the town when the Nazis attempted to attack and began leveling it with heavy artillery fire, trapping hundreds of Nazis.

On the U.S. 7th Army's southwestern flank, however, the Germans had crossed the Danube toward a junction with the French below Stuttgart, and twenty miles south of Nuremberg, those recaptured by the Allies were still Germans had taken back from the Seventh Army ten days ago.

Both the French First and U.S.

Gen. Henri Fernand Dentz Given Sentence of Death

PARIS, April 21—(AP)—Gen. Henri Fernand Dentz, who commanded French troops which resisted the British occupation of Syria in 1941, was condemned to death for treason yesterday.

William C. Bullitt, French army officer and former American ambassador to France, appeared at the last minute to appear as a witness in behalf of Gen. Dentz but the general declined the offer with a shrug.

In his final speech in which he fought for his life, the 62-year-old general said that in opposing the British attack on Syria, he had never followed orders and that he had always acted in what he considered the best interests of France.

WISHED FOR TRIAL

"I have wished for this trial for so long," he said. "It has been my first opportunity to tell the whole truth."

Several Armies sent converging columns racing around Stuttgart and converging on that strengthed German position. The assault is an enveloping movement that will result in the fall of that stronghold.

In the North, at the top of the Western Front, the British Second Army, under General Sir Miles Dempsey, had broken through the main stretch of the Elbe river, south of Hamburg and fought its way toward Hamburg, the bank opposite the city.

HAMBURG POUNDED

As units of the British 7th Armored Division battled through Hamburg with tanks, British tanks and British and American patrols were pouring steel and explosives into the devastated city in a steady rain. RAF Mosquitos bombed the city in a continuous series of separate blockbuster raids during the night.

BBC broadcast said that American and Russian patrols were only 25 miles apart in an undefended sector of Germany. The report said the Americans had reached Moscow, 160 miles east of Berlin, after the three new tank corps into the blazing battle, the Nazis admitted.

At Fearsome Nazi Concentration Camp

No Tears...No Flowers...No Mourners... As SS Men Bear Victims to the Grave

By WILLIAM FRYE

BELSEN, Germany, April 21.—(AP)—The dead were given a burial yesterday at this fearsome concentration camp — each nameless dead getting a ghastly burial. No coffins or flowers at this funeral. No tears or well-bred sympathy. No quiet.

These naked corpses were hauled in trucks and dumped into a pit. Their pall bearers were SS troopers, who had been trained to do this kind of work.

Their litany was the horse-shouts of British soldiers, sick with disease, who had been driven by their SS captors to death.

I saw Belsen—it's piles of lifeless dead, the stench of death, the dead lying dead. Their great eyes were just animal lights in skin-covered skulls of death.

SOME TYPHUS VICTIMS

Some were dying of typhus, some of typhoid, some of tuberculosis, but most were just dying of starvation. Starvation—the flesh on their bodies fell off until there was no flesh left, just skin covering the bones and the end of all life.

Countless others—men—say 20,000, some say more—died horrible deaths before the British 2nd Army reached this camp on the A7, about southeast of Bremen Sunday.

I saw these dead—hundreds and thousands—lying in ditches and against walls of huts and piled in bags. Some were clothed, but most were naked.

SAW THE LIVING?

I saw the living beside these dead. Living—they still walked and talked and stared curiously, uneasily,

"I cannot go on—but I cannot go on. Once the woman has been."

CHILDREN WALK ABOUT

I saw children walking about in this hell. Children—the first I saw! I'll never rub out of my mind, I think, perhaps because it was the last. The known on their joints, breathing through their thin skin, the teeth chattering, the body quivering with a small pathos—a water truck, their great thirst, the water falling in a great rush in and steal pools of water.

Obviously they were unable to comprehend what was happening to them. They are too far gone to remember. They are dying as though there is nothing we can do about it."

WAVE FEEBLE "V"

We could see the light of deliverance, faint, wavering, like a tiny flame, the people they were led into tramps, sawing at the bone, unloading these human carcasses, dragging them through the sand and hills with the dead.

I saw the living and dead lying beside each other in filthy bunks—long, barracks-like buildings—but the men no more able to rise than the dead.

EAT BESIDE DEAD

I saw men eating food just brought from the kitchen of this hell, tormented, half-impaired, but to labor loading the bodies of the people they killed into trucks, sawing at the bone, unloading these human carcasses, dragging them through the sand and hills with the dead.

I saw the living and dead lying beside each other in filthy bunks—long, barracks-like buildings—but the men no more able to rise than the dead.

Major and Minor Notes

By John Oliver

ONE of this city's most versatile and highly accomplished vocalists, Shirley Neher, soprano, left Edmonton Thursday for Vancouver, where until next autumn she will continue her studies at the Royal Conservatory of Music. She will appear at the annual banquet of the Edmonton Civic Opera Society in the Canadian Pacific Hotel on June 1.

Shirley Neher, soprano, left Edmonton yesterday, she outlined to your correspondent her future plans for the Vancouver sojourn. On Wednesday night she will sing at a concert as she said she would, to say that all her plans were complete, and she was leaving without a backward glance.

John Oliver
is a musical critic for the Bulletin. He is a native of the city, a graduate of the University of Alberta, and has been writing for the Bulletin since 1937. While he is not to music critics for the time being, the coming summer, however, as included on the agenda, is a return trip about the time the leaves fall. The weather in the September days forecast the imminent Indian summer to come. In the meantime, if everything goes according to plan, he has covered a lot of ground and encountered a lot of experiences.

Immediate activities include an audition with The Theatre Under the Stars, a civic venture which "survived" the war. Past eastern summer and which last year made successful trips to other points. Though it is a pleasure to be associated with, and there is no reason why she should not justify by what she does, Shirley Neher, over the airwaves, will continue much in the way of singing, acting, and appearing, and, in addition she is continuing on an audience tour with "The Rat" and "The Gipsy Baron" at the Empire theatre several ago.

She joined the Edmonton Civic Opera Society for its production of "Kalinka," "The Firebird," and "Firefly," and remained for subsequent presentations of "Kalinka" and "The Firebird." She was cast in the title role of "Marie" which had been scheduled for the Empire theatre the month before she was born. When Mr. J. B. Carmichael, general musical director, was ordered by her physician to remain in bed, Shirley Neher took the lives of many who have made great sacrifices, and given them renewed strength and some measure of of life.

Teachers and superintendents in the elementary schools and the administrations of Edmonton's public schools have completed plans for the holding of the first annual Arts Festival April 22 to May 10. These festivals will be held in seven elementary schools and the interest throughout the city and will feature work in music, folk dancing, physical education, choral recitation and the like. A new type of festival was introduced in the schools. *

Instead of holding the competition and one regular series of events in the schools, there will be a series of contests held at different times of the year.

In addition, it was decided to dispense with adjudicators. No marks will be given to the entries, but the marks, and the interest throughout the city and will feature work in music, folk dancing, physical education, choral recitation and the like. A new type of festival was introduced in the schools. *

Suggestions for improving the quality was made to compare the efforts of the participants. The purpose of this new type of festival, according to the administration, is to bring closer more closely with the program for Alberta schools, which is designed to help children in their school work, and to eliminate friction. *

Last year's festivals were produced a success, those in the schools and the community are looking for a continuation of that success this year.

The Edmonton Public School Board President, H. C. Thompson, vice-president, Miss M. Staples; secretary, Mrs. E. L. McEachern, and treasurer, Miss M. Davidson, parents and residents as a whole invited to attend the festivals.

We can do so LITTLE, ... and yet so MUCH!

EACH DAY the war takes its toll of Canadian youth. Yet hope and longing cannot reduce enemy strongpoints. We cannot restore lost lives. There is little we can do to ease the sufferings of the wounded.

How, then, can we ever start to pay the debt we owe to our fighting men?

For most of us there is only one way. It is to buy Victory Bonds to help those still fighting to advance at the least possible cost...to help pile up munitions so that they can crush the enemy with fire and steel...to outmatch his weapons until his last spark of hope is dead.

So buy Victory Bonds to your utmost limit...and do it today.

God Was With Me in Malta

By LT.-GEN. SIR WILLIAM G. S. DOBBIE
Governor of Malta, 1940-1942

HERE can be no doubt that in recent times there was a widespread departure from the faith of our forefathers.

Some may have been a sign of progress; others of retrogression; but, for good or bad, the change has been a definite determination to live only in the present, the spiritual ignorance of God, His creation.

Surely this list of characteristics in itself answers the question: "Is the church failing as a sign of progress or retrogression?"

However, it seems that in many quarters the church is failing, causing people to re-examine their position and attitude.

God's Word is clear. As we realize how hopelessly inadequate are the flimsy foundations on which many of us have been building. There is a simple way to get on to a sure and solid foundation which will withstand all the tests of time and days to come.

The main point of this article however is to bring before its readers the fact that such a sure foundation can be found, a matter on which the word "destruction" need not be mentioned.

As I have mentioned, there is widespread unwillingness to consider the fundamental principles of life to live only in and for the present.

That, surely, is incredibly foolish. Religion, God's Word and God's paradise.

It is also very unwise since the God of all creation, who we ignore, helps us to face the future with absolute confidence both for ourselves and for eternity.

It is also a wise policy to shut our eyes to such facts.

ACHIEVING CERTAINTY

What is the real cause of the lamentable uncertainty which exists today about the future of the church?

It is surely due to the fact that we are still trying to build upon insecure foundations. We have been satisfied with enunciating our own human opinions and building therein.

We have been saying: "I think this or that is right." We have found that the opinion expressed is based on solid grounds.

Since so few minds have varied to a disquieting extent, the number of adherents to any one fact has naturally been unsettling, and we do not repeat one error after another and leave him out of our efforts to get out of the morsas of life.

Those who have been most frequently only ploughed themselves more deeply into it.

We are in danger, learning that these things of life are important. The discipline of war is teaching us that. We are in danger that the comfortable theories we have built up in easier times do not stand the test when we come face to face with the reality of life.

What can we do? What can we do to give us comfort or confidence?

How can they? Human opinion cannot help us. Unless Christ means something definite and real to us, we can do but little.

What does matter is that we should not wait for others but do our best to stand by them. That, unfortunately, has often been the one thing which we have failed to do.

So far, probably, we really resolve itself into this: We must find out what Christ offers us and seek for it.

MORE than one out of every four Canadians—men, women and children—bought 7th Victory Loan bonds out of their savings and earnings. Their total investments exceeded 750 million dollars—more than half of the entire loan objective!

They bought bonds for many reasons—to help the war effort—to curb inflation—to build post-war security—but mainly they bought because, as patriotic Canadians, they knew that the very least they could do to help was to save and invest ALL they could!

They have bought unstintingly and will continue to buy just as long as there is the need for their help... They have always recognized and welcomed the call of duty.

PERSONAL HEALTH SERVICE
BY WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

OVEREAT AND MALNOURISHED

As I have said here before, every human being needs a certain amount of milk any growing child, rich or poor, gets these days is all the more important. Even if the dear, kind mother supplies the milk hardly make enough on the transition to solid foods to supply the requirements of a young person.

Due to the fact that many mothers may remember I find, this is trying to be funny when I speak of the malnutrition or obesity of those who are overweight or obese. It is difficult to explain in a paragraph to a lay person what is meant by "Reducing"—mailed on request if you enclose twenty cents and state your name, in this talk, just consider it agreed that overweight or obesity and let it go.

A war widow complains she is extremely tired and irritable all the time. This is due to lack of sleep, and she is a tea drinker. She has been taking tea all day long, taking an average of ten cups a day, with two teaspoons of sugar each. She has a lack of exercise taking care of three young children and the house, she is within the reduced diet, but she is still overweight. What is the best way to reduce?

Two or three cups of tea daily should not harm. Ten cups daily is a little excessive. Still, even that quantity of tea is often too much for the body to digest and assimilate, only in a negative way. I think that is, it is sustaining her and/or her children, but she is not reduced.

SPORT SHOW

MURRAY SAIDMAN, coach of the Walk-Rite fastball team, appears to be quite happy over prospects for his club this season. A host of Betty Carvelt to the girls' pro circuit is of concern to him, and the pitching department and at the service Murray is the man for the chukkers. Otherwise, he reports everything is under control.

Marion McConnell, first base, is going to the pros along with Connie Clegg, second base. They move over to that position and Margaret Royle is being shifted to third. Betty Carvelt, who at one time could have turned pro too but refused, and Vickie Pande who played in the big time last year, are not back yet. Next year will be available. Dolly Lane is again with the team.

But there is no news from Vel Stevenson, who pitched for the Walk-Rite "B" team last year, and Dot Mevers is another girl squad member who has given up according to Coach Saidman. Jean Hartman will be hard to dispense at first base, and the others who are turning out include Marie McCormick, Isabel Gilroy, Gwen Biles, and Dorothy Green. Biles is holding a practice at Kingsway Park tomorrow afternoon.

WANTED-A PRESIDENT!

THEIR doesn't appear to be any terrific scramble for the presidential chair of the Junior Basball League. The names of Jeanne Green, George Snowden and Ben Read will track somewhat down for the position before next Tuesday's election.

In the meantime Arrows, Dogs and Canadian Junction and South Stars are all with entries.

It is rumored Clarence Mohr who coaches the Canadian Junior team will be the new president. He will be handling the Canadian entry. In fact, "Tiger" says the president is just as good as named and the new president will be elected at first practice has been called for Glary Stadium diamond tomorrow.

There is a real need for junior baseball next year.

Walker Cooper Is Notified

To Report to Draft Board

(UPI)—The Cardinals' Walker Cooper

NEW YORK, April 21.—(UPI)—A draft board in little Independence, Missouri—the home of United States President Truman—may cost the St. Louis Cardinals the 1945 National League pennant. Following the natural course of events, the board merely sent a routine communication to one of the names in its files. It was his turn to receive this notice.

Walker Cooper opened that letter and saw:

"The President of the United States and the Army of the United States have directed that you be drafted by conscription or report, etc., etc."

The day he is scheduled to report, April 30th—and that many think the day he will be ordered in—St. Louis Cardinals started to consider the downward path.

Under the new rules, no player may be drafted unless he has a number four spot will hurt Billy Holloman, whose other housemate, Jimmie Foxx, is considered fit to be excepted. Admittedly, he is expertly adept at handling pitchers and can adequately replace him between the plate.

IDEA BACK IN HENNESSY
Tom O'Dea is back in harness after a long absence. He is back and cannot handle more than three games a week.

Cooper and his famous brother, pitcher Mort—have two of the best marks in the major leagues for the past three years when they were the same age—can just as easily be drafted.

In 1942 the two brothers worked with the St. Louis team. When their father died, Mort—had to leave the Yanks.

He is one of the most brilliant players that ever came in the major league and demonstrates that Cooper has.

Both men had blue eyes and showed in an action with the Cardinals in 1941 that they were worth $10,000 apiece. An agreement that Walker can longer for the time being.

Beth Mart and Walker's wife, Marion, had been hoping a raise this year, one would give him a higher income than the $12,000 he is getting now.

Western Heretics, the national advertising agency, are also anxious to see what the new arrangement will bring.

Meanwhile, Walker's wife, Marion, had been granted a raise this year, one which is to be induced into the armed forces.

He started playing again and based just a few days ago and the return to the ranks of the minor leagues arriving in September.

This was the first time that Mort and Walker had played as one minor team at the same time, although Walker had been in the Western Association, Houston in the Texas League and Ogallala in the—

THEY SLOG AHEAD WITH THE DIRT AND ANGUISH OF MODERN WAR!

*They slog ahead—reduce another pillbox—

They keep on driving the enemy back until he breaks.

*And what of us at home? In comfort, safe, clean, without fear of sudden death or wounds.
Sometimes happy enough, but still worried.
'And we want to help. We'd like to be in there with them until it's over and then come home together.
Few of us can do that but surely we can help. We have helped before by buying Victory Bonds and we can do that again.
We can keep on providing the money for all their needs; to keep them equipped, to keep them strong and healthy; to care for them if they are sick or wounded and soon, we hope, to bring them safely back to us.*

Good Reasons
For Purchase
Victory Bonds

Below is given the purchase of 8th Victory Loan Bonds:

Men in the fighting services rightly demand the support of Canadians at home. Servicemen have their lives, Canadians at home only lend their dollars. Death yields no return. Victory Loans pay 3 per cent.

Citizens in Canada neither risk their lives nor their money. They risk their safety and their money works for them. Investment in Victory Loans protects the future. Post-war difficulties are more easily met with Victory Bonds to earn the probability of re-establishment.

Cost of Aviation
In North Is High

Airton costs in the northern air are higher than almost anywhere in the world. Grant McConachie, general manager, Canadian Pacific Air Lines, Western Lines, told members of the Kinsmen Club Friday night in the Macleod Hotel. His subject was "Economics of Aviation in the North."

He emphasized the need for more and more facilities and improved equipment so that it will be easier and easier for the airlines to utilize their planes to the maximum and not be limited by weather or favorable weather and hours of daylight.

Mr. McConachie presented the history of the development of aviation in the north and outlined his plans of various airline companies for improvements in the post war period.

The speaker was introduced by Carl Venn, James A. Jaeger was chairman. —V.

Rapid Test for Brakes Devised in Widespread Safety Drive

Passenger Cars Involved In Accidents to Receive Inspection by Officials

To avert a threatened increase in motor vehicle accidents and to conserve the nation's dwindling supply of cars, the International Association of Chiefs of Police has developed a nationwide brake enforcement program for traffic safety. The brake check is now under way in Edmonton.

Local traffic police started their safety campaign April 15 and will continue until June 1, according to Captain C. E. J. Regan, chief of police. The program includes a brake check for each passenger car involved in an accident or a moving traffic law violation. In addition, it aims at the enforcement of laws relating to the use of law-abiding motorists as possible. The test is simple and takes less than one minute to make.

If a car misses the check or does not stop within 20 feet, the brakes are considered faulty. The driver is given a ticket for the offense, which may result in a fine. Drivers are advised to have their brakes checked annually.

HOW IT WORKS

The "Stop" sign means stop. If a car passes under the "Stop" sign without stopping, it fails the brake test.

If a car stops within 20 feet, it passes the test.

If a car stops within one inch or less of the "Stop" sign, it passes the test.

If a car stops within 20 feet in which time it takes more than one minute, it fails the test.

It has been found in tests that brakes which do not grip until within one inch or less of the "Stop" sign require up to 20 feet in which to stop at 20 miles per hour.

The average car requires about 10 feet to stop. It is important to permit the brakes to do their maximum job of stopping the car. The use of emergency or distance brakes is possible to build up only about 10 pounds.

IS INTERNATIONAL

The brake enforcement program is being conducted in all of the continental United States and Canada.

Despite wartime restrictions placed on car use, visitors, tourists, and travel, over 4,000 passenger cars a day leave the highways every day.

There is no simple reason that cars are wearing out or being damaged because of faulty brakes.

The program for testing faulty brakes will uncover some of the most serious offenders, but to make a complete success of the campaign, drivers are asked to cooperate by voluntarily getting their brakes tested and repaired if necessary.

The safety campaign, which was approved by the executive committee of the International Association of Chiefs of Police at its 1944 annual meeting.

Brake-Testing Proves Popular—Here is a general view of Kingsway during the 1945 auto brake-testing drive in co-operation with police across the continent. The system is different this year, but the object is the same—to insure greater safety in driving and to preserve cars, which are in short supply due to many and varied wartime restrictions.

POINT OF ATTACK

Brakes were selected as the point of attack because motorists know that the best way to stop in time is to apply the brakes.

MLA Speaks To 300 Women

Capt. J. Harper, Provo, Alberta representative in the Alberta Legislature, speaking to 300 women, all members of auxiliaries on Friday afternoon in the Memorial Hall stressed the warning: "do not let the returned veteran go around with a chip on his shoulder." A veterans' auxiliary committee of war auxiliaries with the president, Mrs. G. E. Goodall in the chair, the meeting was held so that all the women could hear of men at the fighting front would be able to get an idea of the service given.

Speaking further of the serviceman with a "chip on his shoulder" Capt. Harper said: "I am sure many young lads will come back slightly embittered and nobody can blame them, but we must do our best to make them good and will carry hard feelings to develop on the part of those trying to help them."

BASIC IDEA

The basic idea of rehabilitation is to try to give the boys enough help to stand in one or two years, an even longer time if necessary, and hopefully expect to attain had they not gone overseas.

There are many many problems to face and you mothers, wives and sweethearts must do your share to help.

We are fighting this war to obtain a better Canada. We, the fighting men do not want to see countries like Germany, Italy, Japan, a million and a half young men are walking the streets or riding freight cars, they are not fighting for us. Many of the men right now at the fighting fronts have done just that, but we must do our best to make something wrong with a country like that, and everybody must help to rectify it.

WORK FOR EVERYONE

"Not only the men who went over, also those who did not go must have jobs. Every unemployed man, woman and child must have work. We all must show a keen interest in our country. In its laws, its government, its policies, its people and we all must vote according to our own desires and needs."

"Any man who wants to go on a farm must be assisted, the man who wants to attend university will be given assistance, and you women must assist them to understand the situation."

"One grave problem which you will have to face is that of what you would do if you were to know that we were going there. There will be many that.

A PROBLEM

"One problem we will have to face is to see to it that some of the fellows do not abuse the privileges offered."

In previous years I have had dealings with the business men, with pressmen, with the men of the ranks, the streets, and lively I have worked alongside the soldiers digging ditches. They were the ones in the war world. They want equal opportunities and equal rights for their children. When they are in, they may not be exonerated again by fair opportunity."

Captain Harper, introduced by Mrs. Goodall, answered questions after his address.

Chapter Plans Rummage Sale

Psi Chi Sigma Chapter of Western Ill Y will hold a rummage sale in the Social Credit hall, 901 Jasper Avenue, on Saturday, April 26, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Proceeds are for the school library.

ONIONS WITHOUT TEARS

8th Victory Loan Opens Monday, April 23rd

This is the symbol of Canada's Eighth Victory Loan . . . the symbol of an opportunity and a challenge. Join the millions who will wear the investor's pin as a sign that they too have done their part to FINISH the job!

Is this Victory Loan different?

NO

This Eighth Victory Loan which begins today is no different from each of the other seven before it.

The money millions of Canadians will lend becomes the tools and supplies of war—ammunition—armour—clothing—food—for our fighting men . . .

These dollars represent things we do without now in the cause of freedom—to assure the safety and sanctity of home—our loan to place beside their sacrifice!

Like the seven loans before it, this eighth is just a loan—not a gift—a loan backed by the soundest security in the world—an investment for the things they will need and we will want in the brighter tomorrow.

No, this Eighth Victory Loan is, in many ways, just like the seven before it in which Canadians have participated so fully.

YES

In one way this loan is utterly different—different because it is infinitely more important than those other loans.

This time we are facing an enemy with his back to his last wall . . . an enemy who will stop at no frightfulness to damage us or to postpone his own defeat.

Therefore we must give our enemy no slightest chance to recover from the defeats being heaped upon him.

We must press on to FINAL Victory . . . backing our fighters to the very last . . . so there can be no doubt of the issue when we give the last great "heave."

But the essential point is a thing of the mind. Our effort must rise to a climax as our enemy's desperation rises . . . our support must match the fever pitch of the final battles. We here must feel it, as they over there know it! That is why this loan is different.

Enumeration Of City Voters Starts Monday

A corps of 320 enumerators will start out Monday to compile the voters' lists in the Edmonton East and West Federal ridings in preparation for the Dominion election, May 15, next. Monday, June 11. Under the terms of the election act the enumeration must be completed by Monday, April 30.

Enumerators have been permitted by returning officers to have their lists completed by Sunday next. The enumerators, who will work in pairs, will have the task of enumerating the voters. They will be using a new form of ballot card and each elector is enumerated on a slip signed by both enumerators indicating the inclusion on the voter's list of the elector, will be present.

LIST QUALIFICATIONS

Qualifications for voters are: A British subject by birth or naturalization who has resided in Canada one year; a member of the household of the wife, and who was permanent resident in the riding on the date of the issuance of the election writ. The voter's list will be issued on Monday, April 30.

In the Dominion election a man must be 18 years of age on April 30 to qualify to vote. The day is to be chosen to vote.

Copies of the voters' lists will be posted at conspicuous places such as polling stations, public places, and addition each elector will receive a copy of the preliminary voter's list so that the poll officer will know he is present.

On this list will be shown the name and place of the court of review of the voter's lists. All this revision electors who were missed by the enumerators may have their lists checked by the court and the opportunity will be provided for the correction of any mistakes made in the compilation and other irregularities which may have occurred in the enumeration.

Returning officers will be appointed by a judge of the common pleas. Proclamations of the election will be issued in all four districts in the same manner as the proclamations of rural polls. This states the nomination day will be Monday, May 15, on which it is 28 days prior to election day.

NAMES ENUMERATORS

Enumerators in the urban polls are appointed by the returning officer, while in the surrounding rural areas the names of candidates in the last election will each nominate an enumerator. In the Edmonton West, the enumerators will have been nominated by the Liberal and Progressive Conservative associations, and in Edmonton East by the Liberal and Credit Association.

It is important that all enlisted in the army should remember that in order to appear on the official voters' list he will not be allowed to vote. No one is "swelling" the voter's list. In rural polls, however, an elector can swear in his voter after being brought before two other electors residing in the polls.

"There are 85 urban and 30 rural electors in the Edmonton West, and in Edmonton East there are 85 polls. This ratio is considered to be fair."

T. H. Ward, returning officer for the Edmonton West riding, has issued general instructions to all buildings in 105th Street and J. J. Fulton, returning off to the Edmonton East, has offices at McDowell Court, 10622 106th Street.

Show to Close

The exhibition of Chinese art, now on at the Kao Weng and Chen Ching Chinese Art and Ceramic Museum of Art, will close on Monday afternoon. This exhibit has attracted many visitors during the 15 days that it has been open to the public. Both Mr. Liao, the gallery owner, and the features of Chinese life and of the meaning of the pictures make a strong appeal. The work of the artist who did the work of art is unknown.

English officer, question of Montreal and Toronto, Canada in the early 19th century introduced sleepwalking to North America.

FORMER NAVIGATOR STILL WORKS WITH MAPS—Harvey Morris was working with maps just a few months ago but they were maps of enemy-held territory. Now he's working in the field services branch of the department of municipal affairs of the Alberta government. Now only 22, he was more than four years in the service having 31 missions over enemy territory as a navigator aboard a Wellington bomber in North Africa and the Middle East. He also served more than a year in the army.

Heeded to return as one of the most commanding, yet presented in a most unusual manner, the 10th annual edition of the International Film Festival came to Vancouver yesterday to begin a heroic welcome for Lt.-Col. C. Merritt, Canadian first Victoria Cross recipient, who has been missing from the front since November 1944.

Another worker in the field department of the department of municipal affairs is thankful that he had the chance to serve in the Royal Canadian Air Force.

When he first came home, on the following long journey in the Mediterranean and Middle East areas as a navigator with the R.A.F., he was assigned to a transport plane flying a total of 347 missions.

In consequence of 1943 Pan American flight, he was promoted to the rank of sergeant major and became a flight commander.

Each summer he has been invited to speak at the annual

LADY EATON'S EATON'S Alice in "No-Wonder-land"

Once there was a little girl named Alice. She had a great deal of good fun for one so small. As she explained to her friend the March Hare (she admired animals and insects for the practical things they could do, like laying eggs and walking on ceilings) . . . "You see," she said, wanting to be very clear, "it is because I am so sensible that I always buy Eaton's Own Brands . . . there is no wonder about them."

"Very sensible," said the Mad Hatter.

"Buy Eaton's Own Brands," she continued, poking the Dormouse, who was asleep as usual, "because their good name is guarded by well-known, fact-finding experts. Why, do you know that in some lines they actually count threads to see that the quality of Eaton's Own

"I disagree," said the Mad Hatter crossly. "A Bazaar is no hold thing."

"Oh! No!" said Alice, who was losing patience. "A Research Bureau and a Comparison Bureau are part of the Eaton system . . . they check and recheck, nothing is left to guess."

"And are Eaton's Own Brands labelled like my Bazaar?" asked the Mad Hatter.

"Oh yes," said Alice, but she added with a sigh, "Of course wartime restrictions have only limited selection . . . but they'll be back with the peace—and that will be soon we hope."

"Bravo!" said the Dormouse with half a smile, having more for his mouth he could sleep as well as a face on it."

A VILLAGE PEST

THE young chicken which the Teenie Weenies had hatched from an egg was rapidly becoming a troublesome problem. The entire tribe of Teenie Weenies was kept busy feeding the chicken when it was very young. As it grew older and was able to find bugs and worms for itself, the little people had to keep a sharp eye on it, for it was continually getting into trouble.

Once it popped its head through the open kitchen door and ate a whole lima bean which the Cook had baked for supper. It upset the Teenie Weenie garbage thimble in search of food, and it drank the rain thimble dry as soon as it was filled. It began to eat the young blades of grass as fast as they came up out of the ground, and no Teenie Weenie mother would leave her baby alone outdoors for even a minute because she feared the chicken might swallow it for a fat bug.

"That bird is a village pest," exploded the Policeman one morning after the chicken had awakened the entire village at daylight by upsetting the garbage thimble on the back porch. "It eats all the time, and if its appetite grows with its size, it's going to eat us out of house and home," continued the Policeman, who spent most of his time shooing the chicken out of trouble.

"Yes, and there is more chicken trouble ahead, too," put in the Old Soldier with a wooden leg. "The garden seeds we planted will be growing in a short time, and if we don't build a fence around the plants, that chicken is going to gobble up the plants as fast as they come out of the ground."

The Teenie Weenies had found a whole spool of strong black thread. With that, and a few twigs to string the thread on, the little men began building a fence around their tiny garden. Using long poles for the fence posts, the men strung the thread so high they had to stand on Teenie Weenie ladders to drive in the tiny staples which the Turk had made. But the chicken grew so fast it was able to hop over the fence within two weeks after it was built.

The General called a meeting in the town hall and it was decided there to tie up the chicken in order to keep it from destroying the garden. The men tied a stout string around the chicken's leg and fastened the other end to a bush. That saved the garden, but it kept half the Teenie Weenies busy carrying feed to the chicken, now that it couldn't find its own food. The larger the chicken grew, the more it ate. It began to look as though the Teenie Weenies would have to start rationing.
